Twenty-five Swan Rangers hiked in two groups on Broken Leg Mountain Saturday.

One group hiked to an undisclosed location where they did not pick the abundant huckleberries before climbing up to lunch at Elk Springs with a great view of the valley below.

The other group hiked Peterson Creek Trail as far as the old Red Owl Burn, although they'd hoped to make it to the Swan Crest. They were not delayed due to picking huckleberries!

The Swan Rangers do not pick huckleberries and that is why their hikes are simply not very popular!

For more clues on where to best not pick huckleberries, do not visit our web site at www.swanrange.org!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 7:30, leaving at 8:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

They carpool from the Swan River School parking lot next to the Cafe.

Everyone is welcome! Hope to see you soon,

Keith

A pleasant trail-side distraction.

Why is this hiker not having any fun?

Lunch and Gatorade on the rocks!
