Seven Swan Rangers skied and snowshoed into the Wolf Creek Drainage via the old Bear Creek Road Saturday. The snow was a bit icy in the morning but nice and soft on the return trip.

There's still enough snow to play in and observe tracks of all sorts of wildlife!

Many thanks to Chris Gotschalk for the details and photos for today's report!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

They carpool from the Swan River School parking lot next to the Cafe.

Everyone is welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

The snow is getting skinny beneath the trees, but remains skiable in the open.

The old Bear Creek Road makes the bend into Wolf Creek, with views of the peaks near Crater Lake.

And Wolf Creek still provides a wintery scene of rushing water, birch, evergreens and snow!
