Eight Swan Rangers hiked the Echo-Broken Leg Trail as far as Wolf Creek Saturday. While it neither rained nor snowed, the winds funneling up Wolf Creek canyon were chilly and stiff!

The larch are dropping their golden needles quickly now and, along with damp birch and cottonwood leaves, make for a quiet carpet to walk upon.

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

They carpool from the Swan River School parking lot next to the Cafe.

Everyone is welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

You know it's hunting season when even discarded beer cans wear camo!

You know its hunting season when hikers wear anything BUT camo!

Heading up Wolf Creek Canyon on one of the Rangers' favorite trails.

Why is it so sunny where we are NOT hiking?
