

November 28, 2009

Twelve Swan Rangers hiked a loop on old logging roads in the Peterson/Patterson Creek area Saturday, looking forward to shedding the bright orange colors after this last weekend of hunting season.

It was a first outing for one young Swan Ranger, Keith's 15-month-old grandson Tyler, who had a thing or two to say about the steep uphill bushwhack near the end of the trip - although it may have also been about cool fingers and toes!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

They carpool from the Swan River School parking lot next to the Cafe.

Everyone is welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

Photos by Keith Hammer and Pam Willison:

A nice fall day and a nice group of people!

Three generations: Kerensa Hammer-Robinson, son Tyler, and father Keith Hammer.

Watching the tree tops go by . . .

. . . 'cause there's not much to see straight ahead!