Thirteen Swan Rangers skied and snowshoed up the old Bear Creek Road Saturday, with about half going all the way to its end at Wolf Creek. Snow conditions were pretty crunchy, but at least it wasn't raining like the day before and the return of cold promises fresh snow in the near future!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

They carpool from the Swan River School parking lot next to the Cafe.

There's enough snow that either cross-country skis or snowshoes are necessary.

Everyone is welcome!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Hi ho, hi ho, up the road we go!

A sneak peak up Wolf Creek Canyon as the road bends around the ridge.

How low can you limbo?!!!
