

December 23, 2006

Two Swan Rangers hiked the closed Bear Creek Road into Wolf Creek Canyon, where they explored the ice and wonders of Wolf Creek. We saw lots of elk and deer tracks along the way as a bit of snow drifted from the sky and the only sounds amid the silence were birds and the flow of the creek. It was a good introduction to what we hope is a white Christmas and peaceful holiday.

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

Everyone is Welcome!

Keith Hammer photos:

The gated Bear Creek Road offers a nice stroll or ski to Wolf Creek.

The weather has remained cold enough for nice ice sculptures to form along Wolf Creek.