

December 30, 2006

Three Swan Rangers skied a couple inches of fresh snow into Krause Basin Saturday, crossing the tracks of coyotes and other critters, pausing at North Krause Creek to take photos and conduct research on various methods of stream crossing.

It was a pleasant final outing for 2006 and we hope for more snow to bridge the streams early in 2007, perhaps by next Saturday?

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

Everyone is Welcome!

HAPPY NEW YEAR and we hope to see you soon,

Keith
