

April 21, 2007

Five Swan Rangers hiked up the Crater Notch Trail Saturday to where hiking became post-holing.

There they were joined by a defiant Frosty the Snowman intent on standing up to global warming throughout the Earth Day weekend!

The Rangers saw their first blooming trilliums near Birch Creek, heard their first Swainson's thrush of the season, and heard lots of varied thrush song.

This Swan Ranger had to travel out of town for the weekend and give thanks to Bob and Chris for their reports and photos.

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

Everyone is Welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

Chris Gotschalk photo of Frosty and friends.

Bob Muth photo of Swan Rangers working on their early summer tans.