

December 2, 2006

Four Swan Rangers skied and show-shoed through the wonderful hemlock and cottonwood forests of Krause Basin Saturday, where we ran into a fifth Ranger who got a late start due to a leaky pipe at home.

There is snow aplenty and the cold weather has made for easy creek crossings via natural ice and snow bridges. It is absolutely gorgeous and silent out there!

So get that winter gear out and come join us!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

Everyone is Welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

Keith Hammer photo of Swan Rangers beneath a snowy birch tree arch