

Saturday February 24, 2007

Ten Swan Rangers skied and snowshoed in Krause Basin today. There was lots of powder snow and lots of sunshine!

We saw wolverine tracks, both walking and leaping - the lowest elevation wolverine tracks yet seen during a Swan Ranger outing!

Then there were the same old, grand fir and hemlock trees that just seem to go nowhere - and the grand old cottonwood trees in Cottonwood Bottom as well! Just standing around breathing, the whole lot of them!

The Swan Rangers meet every Saturday at the Echo Lake Cafe for breakfast at 8:30, leaving at 9:30 for a partial day outing in the northern Swan Mountains and foothills.

Everyone is Welcome!

Hope to see you soon,

Keith

Keith Hammer photos:

